I founded Tigertail in 1980 in Miami, observing a lack of new work in music, performance and dance. At that time many artists from the leading edge were not being experienced here. Tigertail began with composer Pauline Oliveros and a five-concert series "Composers in Performance". Vodka was free and orange juice $1. "Side by Side", temporary installations by Miami artists accompanied the series. A spirit of adventure and risk quickly invaded Tigertail and remains today at our core.

Watch Facebook for 52 weeks of small stories from our 35-year history beginning November 1.

AN ERIC VLOEIMANS TRIO

© Maurits Giesen

Enjoy an intimate evening with virtuoso Dutch trumpeter Eric Vloeimans and his trio Oliver's Cinema, straight from New York City's Blue Note as part of a 14-city U.S. tour. This trio of superb musicians - Belgian Tuur Florizoone, accordion; German-Jörg Brinkmann, cello and Eric on trumpet offer a program that ranges from Ennio Morricone and Nino Rota soundtracks to film compositions via your imagination. Back for the third time each of Vloeimans' ensembles play music filled with melodic lyrical power.

Marc Savoy (accordion, vocals), wife Ann (guitar, frequent lead vocals), and Michael Doucet from BeauSoleil (fiddle, vocals) are today's old-world masters. And so tradition is safe in these preservationist hands, with as pure an all-acoustic, all-Cajun French vision of Acadian music as you'll find in the 21st century.
